GENOS SUITE OF EMOTIONAL INTELLIGENCE ASSESSMENTS

Genos solutions give organizations the ability to work with emotional intelligence in a variety of ways. From developing agile leaders and engaging millennial workforces, to helping individuals become more self-aware.

Genos Emotional Intelligence Assessments can transform the lives of your workforce.

DEVELOPING EMOTIONAL INTELLIGENCE IN THE WORKPLACE

The Genos EI Workplace Behavior Assessments are available in Self, 180° and 360° formats. All reports come with a personalized Genos Development Tips workbook.

Ideal for individuals to gain insight into how they 'show up' at work and pinpoint areas for development.

CREATING MORE EMOTIONALLY INTELLIGENT LEADERS

Discover how well a leader demonstrates emotionally intelligent leadership behaviors and how important specific behaviors are to their leaders, colleagues, peers, and direct reports. The feedback comes from the most credible source available: those who see the leader in action every day.

EMOTIONALLY INTELLIGENT SALESPEOPLE SELL MORE EFFECTIVELY

Salespeople high in emotional intelligence are able to include their prospects and clients' perspectives into the sales process and to authentically connect with them. The Genos EI Sales Reports incorporate feedback from customers and clients as well as colleagues.

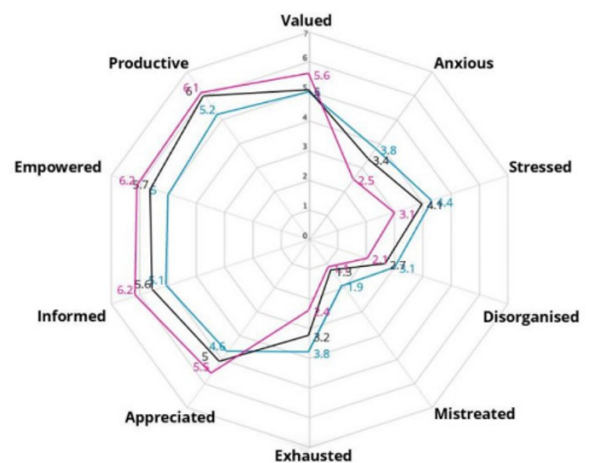

HIRING FOR EMOTIONAL INTELLIGENCE

The Genos Emotional Intelligence Selection Report is the best measure of how often a candidate demonstrates emotional intelligence in the workplace. The report allows hiring managers to utilize EI in the hiring process and also offers a detailed interview to support the hiring process.

WHAT'S THE EMOTIONAL CULTURE OF YOUR ORGANIZATION?

We all experience a wide range of feelings at work. These influence our decisions, behavior and performance. Check the pulse of your organization with the ECI. The Genos Emotional Culture Index measures current, expected and ideal emotions at work to help identify areas of focus in developing teams and culture. Quick, easy to use and customizable to your organization.
